Ziedonis said that addiction and misuse of prescription pills is much more common than the misuse of heroin.

This process is known as free radical damage, and the solution involves antioxidants like Vitamin C.

He now has the third highest contract in the world.

I will be thankful for those who continue that in the future.